I COME IN THE OTHER NIGHT 4107 20B1

Ernie Alston Shafter, 1940

I come in the other night Drunk as I could be There stood a horse in my stable Where my horse ought to be.

Now, my wife, my darling wife Explain yourself to me
How come this horse in my stable
Where my horse ought to be?

You blind fool, you crazy fool Can't you never see That's just a milk cow My granny gave to me.

I've traveled this wide world over I've been from shore to shore
But I never saw a milk cow
With a saddle on before.

Now I come in the other night Drunk as I could be There stood a hat on my hat-rack Where my hat ought to be.

Now, my wife, my darling wife Explain yourself to me
How come this hat on my hat-rack
Where my hat ought to be?

You blind fool, you crazy fool Can't you never see That's just a fryin' pan My granny gave
to me.

I've traveled this wide world over I've been from shore to shore
But a sweat-band on a fryin' pan I never saw before.

Library of Congress

I come in the other night Drunk as I could be There laid a head on my pillar Where my head ought to be.

I COME IN THE OTHER NIGHT

Now, my wife, my darling wife Explain yourself to me
How come this head on my pillar
Where my head ought to be?

You blind fool, you crazy fool, Can't you never see That's just a cabbage head My granny gave to me.

I've traveled this wide world over I've been from shore to shore
But whiskers on a cabbage head I never saw before.
